[The Editor of THE LEDGER is not responsible for the opinions expressed by Correspondents; but nothing reflecting upon the character or habits of any person will be admitted to these columns.]

HELENA.

John Collins is slowly improving. Services in the M. E. Church Sunday. Edward Cord is a candidate for matrimony. Hand your subscription for THE LEDGER to R. B. Cord. John H. Ross, Helena's old shoe manufacturer, is in Cincinnati. Henry Hughes and sister, Miss Amelia, from near Maysville have been here on a visit. Rev. J. C. Walden, formerly Pastor of the Christain Church here, is lying at the point of death at his home in Cynthiana.

RECTORVILLE.

Miss Hattie Glascock is visiting friends here. Samuel Davis has gone to Indiana with horses again. A. J. Hendrickson spent a few days with J. L. Kirkland. Miss Belle Trisler is visiting friends and relatives in Concord. Mrs. Mary A. Tolle has been visiting her son Oscar for two weeks. Mrs. Hattie Webster of Flemingsburg has been visiting friends here. J. R. Peeples has been paying pastoral visits in this neighborhood this week. Gardner & Goodwin have sold their entire purchase of tobacco for ten cents per hundred.

ABERDEEN.

Robert McDaniel of Cincinnati is in town. Ira Botts, who has been in Peoria, Ill., for some time, is home on a visit. There is a brick building in this place, the walls of which are shaky and should be repaired immediately. The stores of W. N. Smith & Co. and Mat Hartman were burglarized Wednesday night. At the former place a few coppers left in the money drawer and some candies were taken. Mr. Hartman puts his loss at about $6.

Mayor Jesse Ellis has returned from Cincinnati where he made satisfactory arrangements with the Police Commissioners of that city. Any person now violating the town ordinances must pay for so doing or be sent to the City Workhouse.

A CALL.

SHANNON, KY., April 21st, 1892. Editor Public Ledger—Maysville, Ky.—Dear Sir: Don't you think it a good idea for the Republicans to put a ticket in the field for the County Offices? The Republicans of this precinct believe that our party should have a candidate for Circuit Clerk, and we present for consideration of the party the name of Henry P. Gault, who will make a splendid race against the nominee of the Democracy for that office. Mr. Gault is a young man of splendid character, well connected, a son of Richard P. Gault, Esq., and would poll the solid Republican vote of Mason county, and from personal considerations get a large support from Democrats who prefer him to the gentleman from Germantown. MANY VOTERS.

To Our City Subscribers.

William O. Outten has charge of the delivery of THE LEDGER to all city subscribers, and he will make collection of the subscription accounts. Orders should be given to him, or they may be left at the office for him. Subscribers who do not receive their papers promptly are requested to report to the office.

Here's a Reputation Worth Having.

J. J. Bright of Point Pleasant, W. V., writes to John T. Short of this city, asking him to go to his place and shoe his fine horse "Strong Boy." Mr. Short shod the horse last fall so that he paced in 2:12, and Mr. Bright thinks he can shoe him now so as to in 2:08. One hundred and forty miles is a long distance to travel to shoe a horse, and few men would be sent for to go that far. But Maysville workmen are good ones and don't you forget it.

One of the most disastrous floods people in the Ohio valley have experienced in years, occurred in August. February is looked upon as the most dangerous month. This year April may distinguish itself.

The Old Bum Again.

The City Marshal of Higginsport locked up a tramp for vagrancy. Later in the morning he tore up the mattress that was in his cell, and at noon he set fire to the excelsior, and but for the timely arrival of the engine watchman the Town Hall would have been consumed. The man claimed to belong to the George H. Thomas Post, G. A. R., Cincinnati, and wanted to go to Indiana. He said if he was put across the river he could steal his way on the train, which was done in a hurry. That's the same old "bum" that was here a few days ago. He no more belongs to Thomas Post—or any other Post—than he does to the household of Queen Victoria.

Just Fifty Years Ago.

Another paper makes mention of a copy of THE Maysville Eagle of date May 15th, 1844. Pshaw, that's nothing; we have one before us dated March 5th, 1842, printed by Lewis Collins. The Maysville merchants appear to have been in those days more liberal with their advertising favors than now; but in the well-filled columns of the paper there is the name of but a single advertiser who lives now in Maysville, and but two who live elsewhere in all this busy world. The first is Captain Newton Cooper, still hale and hearty, and the others are Daniel Spalding of Louisville and Henry Waller of Chicago.

Played the Deuce at Danville.

At Danville during a violent storm, lightning struck the large brick sanitarium owned by Dr. A. W. Johnstone and Dr. Reamy. The massive stone steps in front were displaced as easily as if they had been as light as feathers, and a deep hole was torn in the earth beneath them. Leaving the steps, the lightning reappeared in a bathroom on the first floor, and fully fifty feet to the rear of the steps, and there entirely demolished a washstand, tearing it to splinters, and wrenching one of the handles from a portable iron filter, but left no further marks of its visit in the room. Dr. Johnstone's mother and sisters were in the building, as well as several other persons, but none of them were injured or inconvenienced, save by severe shocks.

An Ex-Mayor in Jail.

B. P. Higgins, ex-Mayor of Somerset, is in jail, having been surrendered by his bondsmen. His trial was postponed until next Monday, as he claimed he could not get his witnesses here from Chattanooga. He could not give bond again, and was sent to jail.

The Grand Jury returned two indictments against him, one for robbing and the other for unlawfully detaining Miss Finetta Woods in January last. The young lady is yet in the Lexington Insane Asylum, where she has been ever since the attack made upon her by Higgins. The feeling against him is intense, but it is believed that no violence will be attempted by the people, and it is generally believed he will be sent to the Penitentiary for a term of years.

Circuit Court.

Con Guilfoyle for Sabbath breaking was fined $25. Same for selling liquor to a minor was fined $50.

Same for same offense pleaded to former conviction and was dismissed.

Pete Fulton for selling liquor to a minor was fined $50.

The Grand Jury returned the following indictments:

William Driscoll, shooting and wounding another with intent to kill.

U. P. Degman, assault and battery.

George Clarke, grand larceny.

John West, carrying concealed weapons.

They failed to find an indictment against Caroline Payne for perjury in the Travis murder case.

An indictment against Con Guilfoyle for Sabbath breaking was filed away.

Same was cleared of the charge of keeping a disorderly house.

The trial of George Clarke, grand larceny, was set for to-morrow.

In the case of the Commonwealth vs. Robert Moran and others, for disturbing lawful assemblage of people, judgment dismissed as to John Gartrell.

The Pett Jury discharged this morning until to-morrow morning.

Refused to be His Own Grandfather.

William Harman, a resident of Titusville, committed suicide a few days ago from a melancholy conviction that he was his own grandfather. Here is the singular letter that he left: "I married a widow with a grown-up daughter. My father visited our house very often, fell in love with my stepdaughter and married her. So my father became my son-in-law, and my stepdaughter my mother, because she was my father's wife. Some time afterwards my wife had a son; he was my father's brother-in-law and my uncle, for he was the brother of my stepmother. My father's wife, i. e. my stepdaughter, had also a son; he was, of course, my brother, and in the meantime my grandchild, for he was the son of my daughter. My wife was my grandmother, because she was my mother's mother. I was my wife's husband and grandchild at the same time. And as the husband of a person's grandmother is his grandfather, I was my own grandfather."

TRAINS on the C. and O. are running on time again.

The river has risen about four feet in the last twenty-four hours and is rising slowly this morning.

IF A. B. C., who advertised in the "Lost" column for "a tress of brown hair," will offer a suitable reward, the same will be forthcoming.

Jus KINDIG, a horse dealer of York, Pa., is in the county. He purchased a fine animal from W. R. Gill of Washington yesterday.

D. HUNT & SON are offering great bargains in Carpets, Lace Curtains and Window Shades. Don't fail seeing these goods before purchasing as you will certainly save money by doing so.
